Defending The Values You Hold Dear

The ACDP is built on a strong Biblical foundation that seeks to honour God and put you and your needs at the centre of its policies.

The ACDP:

- Protects religious freedoms. For example, during the Constitution-making process, we ensured that South Africa was not declared a Secular State. This means, inter alia, that religious leaders today can hold public office, and that religious observances may be conducted in state institutions.
- Stands firmly against attempts by the Cultural, Religious and Linguistic Rights Commission to regulate the Church.
- Opposes the General Intelligence Laws Amendment Bill which will require state security vetting for anyone wanting to establish an NGO or church.
- Provides vital oversight. We played a key role in Parliament's Eskom Enquiry into state capture and corruption, and currently sit on the Impeachment Committee for the Section 89 Enquiry into the removal of the President of the Republic of South Africa;

- Promotes quality education where parents play a central role. We also protect the rights of home schoolers.
 - Opposes anti-family values in our education system found in legislation and policies such as the Basic Education Laws Amendment Bill and government's Comprehensive Sexuality Education curriculum.
 - Protects family values, and opposes abortion-on-demand, pornography, and attempts to legalise prostitution.
- Protects property rights and opposes the expropriation of land without compensation.
- Supports an open-market economy with a social conscience.
